

REPORT SUMMARY

Your interview signal is developing.

You are improving: your signal is up 8 points from your first scored round.

Briefing note

Maya has prepared a report for you. Read it slowly, keep the strong signal, and spend the next round working on the weakness that keeps showing up. The goal is not to collect more boxes. It is to leave the interviewer with a clearer memory of what you did and why it mattered.

■ STRONGEST SIGNAL

Ownership

You sound clearest when you explain the decision you owned and why it mattered.

■ REPEAT GAP

Answer endings

Some answers stop before the result, metric, or learning lands.

Probe pressure

Maya had to probe a little: about 1.5 follow-ups per scored round.

NEXT PRACTICE MOVE

In the next round, finish each answer with one concrete outcome.

Latest round
